

"JUST THE PALIO" July/August 2009 spyns

Anyone can take you to Italy, but few do it like us: deeply, madly, passionately. Join our 4-day adventure to experience il Palio di Siena, the world's oldest horse race, while staying in the medieval splendor of Siena's old city. Look out your window and wonder, "what century is this?" as church bells ring in the distance.

Day 1: Siena Walking Tour Your Spyns guide, and personal concierge, meets you at Siena's train station and drives you directly to your hotel. A scarf from your district (or 'contrade') will be waiting in your room. After freshening up, join an afternoon walking tour of Siena's Duomo cathedral and square (Piazza del Campo). Free night for dinner.

Day 2: Practice Palio / Contrade Dinner Attend one of the many practice races before touring your contrade's museum. Learn the rich 700-year history of il Palio followed by a hearty lunch on Siena's main square. See first-hand how the race's organizers have transformed the Piazza del Campo by covering it with earth. Enjoy an afternoon nap or some light shopping before spectacular outdoor contrade dinner and an evening of wine, food and song.

Day 3: Palio Race Day After a hearty breakfast, join in the endless processions & parades leading up to the afternoon race. Once settled in your balcony seat near the starting lines, watch a pre-Palio procession that hasn't changed for hundreds of years with our guides explaining the complex history of this Italian pageant. Then watch in awe as thousands of Siennese cheer, scream, and weep as their horses race around the medieval square. Following the race, join us for a final send off dinner in a Siena favorite.

Day 4: Departure Sleep in late, have breakfast in bed, or get in that last bit of shopping before transfer to the train station and your final destination.

Hotel Information: The Hotel Chiusarelli: a grandiose Tuscan-style villa built in the 1870s. Its 55 rooms make it the perfect boutique hotel from which to explore Siena's many sights and, of course, the Palio. Option of upgrading to the Palazzo Ravizza* a beautiful Tuscan palace hotel just 5 minutes from Siena's central Piazza del Campo with views over the verdant hills and vineyards of Chianti.
